DESCRIPTION

Once inside, you are welcomed by a spacious hallway with stairs leading to the first floor, along with a cloakroom and useful storage. The ground floor features two well-proportioned bay-fronted reception rooms, one to the front and one to the rear. The rear reception room is particularly inviting, boasting a wood-burning stove and glazed doors that open out onto the level garden. The open-plan kitchen/dining room is fitted with a range of wall and base units, including a gas hob and two electric ovens, plumbing for a washing machine and space for a fridge freezer, and also benefits from an additional door leading out to the garden. Off the kitchen is a practical utility room with plumbing for a washing machine and an airing cupboard housing the boiler. Completing the ground floor, the garage has been converted to provide additional reception space along with walk-in storage. This versatile room can be accessed from both the front reception room and the utility room, and could serve as a home office, extra bedroom, or gym.

Upstairs, there are two good-sized double bedrooms with built-in wardrobes, a single bedroom, a family bathroom, and an en-suite shower room to the principal bedroom.

To the front of the property, a private driveway provides parking for a couple of cars. To the rear, there is a charming, level, enclosed garden, mainly laid to lawn with a generous patio area, as well as mature shrubs, hedging, and trees. There is also additional space to the right-hand side of the house, where the current owner previously obtained planning permission for a double-storey extension. This presents excellent potential for further development, subject to planning permission.
